I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile, and Other Basic Information

The Company believes that one of its most important management issues is to increase the transparency and efficiency of its management decision-making process and improve corporate value by strengthening corporate governance. The Company has established its basic views and policy for corporate governance, based on each of the principles of the Corporate Governance Code, as the “JVCKENWOOD Corporate Governance Policy” (“CG Policy”).

Matters Relating to Independent Directors/Audit & Supervisory Board Members

The Company has designated all of its External Directors and External Audit & Supervisory Board Members as Independent Directors and Independent Audit & Supervisory Board Members who satisfy the qualifications therefor.

The Company works to ensure the effectiveness of the supervisory function of management based on experience, achievements, professional expertise, insights, and other attributes, as well as independence which can avoid conflicts of interest with general shareholders. To this end, it elects candidates for the position of External Director by confirming their business backgrounds and ensuring that they are not major shareholders of the Company or have never been engaged in the execution of business at the Company's main business partners based on its criteria and policies for independence set out in accordance with the "Guidelines for the Governance of Listed Companies," established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. On June 24, 2016, the Company appointed Mr. Junichi Hikita, Mr. Masanori Yoshikai, and Mr. Yasuyuki Abe as External Directors.

In addition, meeting documents for the Executive Officers Committee are distributed when needed, with a view to enhancing the supervisory function of business execution.

2. Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) Updated

1. Basic Explanation of the Corporate Organizations

(1) Matters concerning the Board of Directors

Corporate decisions are made at the General Meetings of Shareholders, the highest decision-making body of the Company, regarding fundamental matters stipulated in the Companies Act. However, unless otherwise specified in laws and regulations, matters stipulated in each item of Paragraph 1, Article 459 of the Companies Act, including dividends of surplus, are determined by resolutions of the Board of Directors, instead of resolutions at the General Meetings of Shareholders, in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation to enable the formulation of flexible capital and dividend policies.

The Company shall regard the Board of Directors as the fundamental and strategic decision-making body, as well as the supervisory body for business execution. The Board of Directors shall have a regular meeting once a month and an extraordinary meeting as necessary to discuss and resolve basic policies and important matters relating to management, as well as supervise and monitor the status of business execution. Directors shall have a fiduciary responsibility to shareholders. The term of office of Directors is one year to ensure the clarification of their responsibilities and swift management decision making. The Board of Directors is composed of persons with diverse experience, achievements, professional expertise, and insights. The Board of Directors shall also actively appoint External Directors to promote highly transparent decision making and take the initiative in corporate reform and governance.

The Company established the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, in which all of its three External Directors serve as committee members, effective December 1, 2015, in order to strengthen the independence and objectivity of the functions of the Board of Directors. Since its establishment, the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee has proposed candidates for the position of Representative Directors of the Company to the Board of Directors, and reviewed the adequacy of candidates for the positions of officers proposed by Representative Directors, etc. and their remuneration plan. The Board of Directors, taking into consideration opinions stated by the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, has determined candidates for the positions of officers and their remuneration.

Since the meeting of the Board of Directors held subsequent to the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders on June 24, 2016, Yasuyuki Abe, who serves as Independent External Director independent from and neutral to management of the Company, has been serving as the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

(2) Matters concerning Directors

The Articles of Incorporation stipulate that the number of Directors shall be nine or less, and that resolutions for electing Directors at the General Meetings of Shareholders shall require the presence of shareholders holding one-third or more of the exercisable voting rights of shareholders and the majority of votes thereof. Moreover, no cumulative voting shall be accepted. Nine Directors were elected at the 8th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2016.

With a view to limiting the scope of liability assumed by Directors to reasonable levels, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company stipulate, pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 426 of the Companies Act, to exempt Directors, including those who served in the past, from liability for damages due to negligence of duties, subject to approval by resolution at the Board of Directors, and to the extent permitted by laws and regulations.

The Company works to ensure the effectiveness of the supervisory function of management based on experience, achievements, professional expertise, insights, and other attributes, as well as independence which can avoid conflicts of interest with general shareholders. To this end, it elects candidates for the position of External Director by confirming their business backgrounds and ensuring that they are not major shareholders of the Company or have never been engaged in the execution of business at the Company's main business partners based on its criteria and policies for independence set out in accordance with the "Guidelines for the Governance of Listed Companies," established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. On June 24, 2016, the Company appointed Mr. Junichi Hikita, Mr. Masanori Yoshikai and Mr. Yasuyuki Abe as External Directors.

Mr. Hikita has extensive experience, knowledge, professional views and personal relationships that were obtained through his work at and management of companies outside the Group. He also has been able to share his advice with management from managerial and technical perspectives. Moreover, his advice and recommendations, when necessary, ensure the validity and appropriateness of the Board of Directors' decision making from an objective standpoint of a third party, independent from the business execution of the Group.

No mutual relationship exists between Hikita Consulting Co., Ltd., where he concurrently holds office, and the Company, such as business transactions including donations, exchanges of directors or shareholding.

Although he has worked for ROHM Co., Ltd., which currently does have business relations with the Company with regard to purchases, transactions between the Company and ROHM Co., Ltd. amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company in the consolidated fiscal year under review and do not fall under major transactions for either the Company or the firm. In addition, he resigned as Senior Corporate Advisor of ROHM Co., Ltd. eight (8) years ago and currently has no relationship with the company. Although ROHM Co., Ltd. holds 31,400 shares of the Company, the number of shares held is considered to be small, the shares are not cross-held, and no mutual relationship exists between the Company and ROHM Co., Ltd. including donations and exchanges of directors.

Furthermore, Mr. Hikita has not been an operating officer or the like of our major business partners and major shareholders in the past other than that stated above. For these reasons, the Company regards him as independent.

Mr. Yoshikai has extensive experience, knowledge, professional views and personal relationships that were obtained through his work at and management of companies and organizations outside the Group. He also has been able to share his advice with management from managerial and technical perspectives. Moreover, his advice and recommendations, when necessary, ensure the validity and appropriateness of the Board of Directors' decision making from an objective standpoint of a third party, independent from the business execution of the Group.

No mutual relationship exists between the Institute for Future Engineering and Study Group on Japan's Goals in the 21st Century (Specified Non-Profit Organization), where he concurrently holds office, and the Company, such as business transactions including donations, exchanges of directors or shareholding. Although Sumitomo Electric Industries, Ltd. had business relations with the Company in the past with regard to purchases and sales, its transactions with the Company amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company then and did not fall under major transactions for either the Company or the firm. The National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology (AIST), where he served in the past as an executive, and the Company have no mutual relationship, such as business transactions including donations, exchanges of directors or shareholding. Although the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) and the JAPAN EXTERNAL TRADE ORGANIZATION (JETRO), where Mr. Yoshikai served as an executive, and Saitama University, where he served as teaching staff, have had transactions with the Company with regard to sales, transactions between the Company and each of these entities amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company then and did not fall under major transactions for either the Company or any of these entities. In addition, no mutual relationship exists between the entities and the Company including donations, exchanges of directors or shareholding.

Furthermore, Mr. Yoshikai has not been an operating officer or the like of our major business partners and major shareholders in the past other than that stated above. For these reasons, the Company regards him as independent.

Mr. Abe has extensive experience, knowledge, professional views and personal relationships in the electronics, machinery and information industry fields abroad that were obtained through his work at and management of companies outside the Group. He also has been able to share his advice with management from a managerial perspective. Moreover, his advice and recommendations, when necessary, ensure the validity and appropriateness of the Board of Directors' decision making from an objective standpoint of a third party, independent from the business execution of the Group.

No mutual relationship exists between Sumitomo Corporation and Orange and Partners Co., Ltd., where he concurrently holds office, and the Company, such as business transactions including donations, exchanges of directors and shareholding.

SCSK Corporation (“SCSK”) and the Company had business relations in the past regarding purchases, and the predecessors of SCSK included Sumisho Electronics Co., Ltd. and Sumisho Computer Systems Corporation, both of which he previously served in as a management executive. However, SCSK’s transactions with the Company amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company, and did not fall under major transactions for either the Company or SCSK. Furthermore, Fuji Heavy Industries Ltd., where Mr. Abe is to assume the post of auditor in June 2016, currently has business relations with the Company with regard to purchases and sales. Its transactions with the Company, however, amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company in the consolidated fiscal year under review, and do not fall under major transactions for either the Company or the firm. In addition, no mutual relationship exists between Fuji Heavy Industries Ltd. and the Company including donations, exchanges of directors and shareholding.

Furthermore, Mr. Abe has not been an operating officer or the like of our major business partners and major shareholders in the past other than that stated above. For these reasons, the Company regards him as independent.

The Company has designated Mr. Junichi Hikita, Mr. Masanori Yoshikai, and Mr. Yasuyuki Abe as Independent Directors and notified the Tokyo Stock Exchange of their appointments, pursuant to its provisions.

With a view to recruiting and retaining outstanding personnel as External Directors, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company stipulate, pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 427 of the Companies Act, that the Company may enter into an agreement with an External Director to limit the liability for damages due to his/her negligence of duties within a certain level.

(3) Matters concerning Executive Officer System

The Company has introduced an Executive Officer System under which the management supervisory function is separated from the business execution function to clarify management responsibility and business execution responsibility. Since June 24, 2016, nine Directors (including three External Directors) and 15 Executive Officers (five serving concurrently as Directors) have been performing their duties.

The Board of Directors, which leads the Company’s initiatives in corporate reform and governance, is chaired by an External Director to strengthen governance, holds active discussions between External Directors as independent directors and Directors concurrently serving as Executive Officers to make decisions, and entrusts the business execution to Executive Officers. In addition, the President and Representative Director of the Board, who is a member of the Board of Directors, serves as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to take responsibility for both management oversight and business execution. In accordance with decisions made at meetings of the Board of Directors, the CEO, serving as the Chairman, leads the Executive Officers Committee’s meetings, and Executive Officers take responsibility for the execution of business.

The Company, effective June 24, 2016, established the position of Chief Operating Officer (COO) for executives who assume responsibility for the overall operation of all the businesses in the Americas, EMEA (Europe, Middle East and Africa), Asia Oceania, and China, as well as the post of COO in the Automotive Sector, Public Service Sector and Media Service Sector. Further, we established the positions of Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Chief Strategy Officer (CSO), Chief Technology Officer (CTO), and Chief Administration Officer (CAO) for officers who oversee corporate divisions, and appointed Executive Officers to those positions. In this way, we have shifted to a new execution system under which the appointed Executive Officers support the CEO, towards the achievement of Vision 2020, the Mid- to Long-term Business Plan released in May

(4) Matters Concerning Audit & Supervisory Board

The Company adopts a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board framework as its organizational structure. Audit & Supervisory Board Members are responsible for the corporate audit function and their duties include attending Board of Directors' meetings and other important meetings, as well as holding Audit & Supervisory Board meetings, auditing the execution of Directors' duties, the business execution of the entire Group, and corporate accounting.

The Audit & Supervisory Board holds meetings once a month, and extra meetings as needed.

(5) Matters Concerning Audit & Supervisory Board Members

Since June 24, 2016, three Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including two External Audit & Supervisory Board Members) have performed their roles and responsibilities.

Mr. Takayoshi Sakamoto, an Audit & Supervisory Board Member, possesses considerable knowledge of finance and accounting based on his approximately 11 years of experience of serving in the Finance & Accounting Division and other divisions of the Group.

With a view to limiting the scope of liability assumed by Audit & Supervisory Board Members to reasonable levels, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company stipulate, pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 426 of the Companies Act, to exempt Audit & Supervisory Board Members, including those members who served in the past, from liability, subject to approval by resolution of the Board of Directors, for damages due to negligence of duties and to the extent permitted by laws and regulations.

The Company works to ensure the effectiveness of the supervisory function of management based on experience, achievements, professional expertise, insights, and other attributes, as well as independence, having no potential conflicts of interest with general shareholders. To this end, it nominates candidates for the position of External Audit & Supervisory Board Member, in principle, upon confirming their business backgrounds (i.e., confirming they have not been major shareholders of the Company or engaged in the execution of operations of any of the Company's main business partners whose transactions with the Company exceed 1% of the Company's net sales) based on the Company's independence standards and policies, which are stipulated in the "Guideline for the Governance of Listed Companies" issued by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, with the approval of the Audit & Supervisory Board. On June 24, 2016, the Company appointed Mr. Shojiro Asai and Mr. Nagaaki Ohyama as External Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

Mr. Asai utilizes his extensive experience, knowledge, professional views and personal relationships that were obtained through his work at and management of companies outside the Group as well as his experience in carrying out audits as the Group's external Audit & Supervisory Board Member. Moreover, he provides proper advice and proposals, including those as a corporate manager and engineer, at the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board as an objective third party, separate from the Group.

No mutual relationship exists between Rigaku Corporation, where he concurrently holds office, and the Company, such as business transactions including donations, exchanges of directors and cross-shareholding. In addition, although the Japan Science and Technology Agency currently has business relations with the Company regarding purchases, its transactions amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company in the consolidated fiscal year under review, and do not fall under major transactions for either the Company or the firm. Furthermore, no mutual relationship exists between the Japan Science and Technology Agency and the Company including donations, exchanges of directors and shareholding.

Although Hitachi, Ltd., where Mr. Asai previously served as a management executive, currently has business relations with the Company regarding purchases, its transactions with the Company amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company in the consolidated fiscal year under review, and do not fall under major transactions for either the Company or the firm. Mr. Asai resigned from Hitachi, Ltd. more than 10 years ago and currently has no relationship with the company. In addition, no mutual relationship exists between Hitachi, Ltd. and the Company including donations, exchanges of directors and shareholding. Furthermore, Hitachi Medical Corporation and Japan Analytical Instruments Manufacturers' Association, both of which he previously served in as a management executive, have no mutual relationship with the Company including donations, exchanges of directors and shareholding.

Furthermore, Mr. Asai has not been an operating officer or the like of our major business partners and major shareholders in the past other than that stated above. For these reasons, the Company regards him as independent.

Mr. Ohyama is elected as an Audit & Supervisory Board Member and expected to utilize his extensive experience, knowledge, professional views and personal relationships as an academic in organizations outside the Group. Moreover, he is expected to provide proper advice and proposals, including those in his field of specialty, at the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board as an objective third party, separate from the Group. Though Mr. Ohyama has not engaged in corporate management in the past, he is elected based on the belief that he able to properly perform his duties as an Audit & Supervisory Board Member based on his extensive experience and knowledge.

Although the Tokyo Institute of Technology, where he concurrently holds office, currently has business relations with the Company regarding purchases and sales, its transactions with the Company amounted to less than one (1) percent of the consolidated net sales of the Company in the consolidated fiscal year under review, and do not fall under major transactions for either the Company or the entity. Furthermore, no mutual relationship exists between the Tokyo Institute of Technology and the Company including donations, exchanges of directors and shareholding.

Furthermore, Mr. Ohyama has not been an operating officer or the like of our major business partners and major shareholders in the past other than that stated above. For these reasons, the Company regards him as independent.

The Company has designated Mr. Shojiro Asai and Mr. Nagaaki Ohyama as Independent Audit & Supervisory Board Members and notified the Tokyo Stock Exchange of their appointments, pursuant to its provisions. With a view to recruiting and retaining outstanding personnel as External Audit & Supervisory Board Members, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company stipulate, pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 427 of the Companies Act, that the Company may enter into an agreement with an External Audit & Supervisory Board Member to limit the liability for damages due to his/her negligence of duties within a certain level.

To prepare for the possibility that the number of Audit & Supervisory Board Members falls below the statutory minimum number, pursuant to Paragraph 3, Article 329 of the Companies Act, the Company has appointed one substitute Audit & Supervisory Board Member.

(6) Matters Concerning Internal Audits

The Company has established the Corporate Audit Office to carry out integrated monitoring of the implementation of internal controls. The Office conducts extensive on-site investigations into the Company and affiliated companies within the Group, and identifies questionable events in the early stages from a perspective different from outlooks on value of the front-line business divisions, thereby developing a greater capability to prevent the occurrence of such events.

The Corporate Audit Office had four staff members when this report was filed.

(7) Matters Concerning Compliance

The Company does not simply interpret the term “compliance” as meaning “to comply with laws and regulations”; it understands that the term refers to its responsibility “to respond appropriately to the needs of society.” Specifically, the Company sees the objective of compliance as not only to comply with laws and regulations but to respond to the needs of society behind such laws and regulations by adhering to them. To this end, the Group is promoting comprehensive compliance activities through the Compliance Committee, chaired by the CEO.

Concerns about compliance issues are reported via the whistle-blowing system established in the Internal Governance Office, which is the department responsible for managing the JVCKENWOOD Group Internal Whistle-blowing Rules and the whistle-blowing system based on the Rules, and remedial actions will be led by the Compliance Committee. A similar system is in place in the Audit & Supervisory Board Office, to which concerns about accounting and auditing issues are directly reported.

The Internal Governance Office is working to establish a compliance structure and conducts compliance education under the CEO's instructions. The Company provides compliance training programs including e-learning via the Internet and practical training courses for officers and employees of the Company and major affiliates.

(8) Matters Concerning Consolidated Group Management

The Company has established the Group Governance Division to promote reform of consolidated Group management. The Group Governance Division designs, plans, and supports measures to prevent the recurrence of misconduct, facilitate management (operational) reforms, and enhance consolidated management and administration for the entire Group's operations while serving as a division that comprehensively deals with matters for affiliates and operational divisions.

2. Procedures and Status of Internal Audits and Audits by Audit & Supervisory Board Members

The Corporate Audit Office of the Company conducts an internal audit on the overall business execution of the entire Group and reports the audit results to the Board of Directors which serves as an oversight organization. The Corporate Audit Office has four staff members engaged in operational audits and internal control audits. As the audit scope covers the entire Group, when planning an audit schedule, the Corporate Audit Office prepares a Risk Assessment Form and selects audit targets based on risk assessment to improve the effectiveness of internal audits.

In addition, the Company carries out an evaluation of the quality of internal audits by outside experts about once every five years, in order to improve the audit quality.

Audit & Supervisory Board Members implement audits according to the audit schedule, audit the entire Group's operations, and check in-house approval documents based on the monitoring of Directors and Executive Officers. Audit & Supervisory Board Members also accompany audits performed by the Corporate Audit Office, thereby broadening the scope of the audits by Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

3. Accounting Audit Status

During the previous fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, three certified public accountants, Mr. Yasunari Kunii, Mr. Yasuhiko Haga, and Mr. Nobuo Son, performed accounting audits of the Company and the Group. They are limited liability partners and managing partners of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited. Mr. Son, Mr. Haga, and Mr. Kunii have performed audits consecutively for seven years, four years, and three years, respectively. The total number of audit assistants is 32 (13 certified public accountants and 19 other assistants).

4. Coordination among Internal Audits, Audit by Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and Accounting Audit

All the Audit & Supervisory Board Members including External Audit & Supervisory Board Members perform management audits by themselves, attend Board of Directors' meetings, obtain the results of internal audits performed by the Corporate Audit Office in relation to the Group's overall business operations, and exchange and confirm relevant information by holding meetings with the Corporate Audit Office whenever necessary. If there is a sign of fraud, or other misdeeds committed by management, the Corporate Audit Office is required to report it to Audit & Supervisory Board Members in accordance with the internal rules.

At the Audit & Supervisory Board meeting, the results of accounting audits performed by Accounting Auditors are regularly reported to Audit & Supervisory Board Members, with an aim to ensuring more effective audits through mutual cooperation.

The Company has established its internal audit system so that it can strengthen monitoring functions by performing audits for each compliance theme in collaboration with the Compliance Committee, and by other means.

External Directors attend Board of Directors' meetings, and recognize the Group's overall business operation by obtaining the results of internal audits performed by the Corporate Audit Office. As a result, they can oversee the Group's business execution, give advice, and make proposals whenever necessary based on their professional expertise and from an independent perspective with no conflicts of interest.

5. Interests with External Directors and External Audit & Supervisory Board Members

There are no personal, capital and trading relationships, or other interests between the Company and each of its External Directors and External Audit & Supervisory Board Members, apart from some cases of holding shares in the Company.

With respect to the damages stipulated in Paragraph 1, Article 423 of the Companies Act, the Company and the three External Directors have concluded an agreement limiting liability for damages arising from the execution of their duties in good faith and without gross negligence. The maximum liability under the agreement will be either 5 million yen or a minimum liability amount stipulated by laws and regulations, whichever is greater.

Likewise, with respect to the damages stipulated in Paragraph 1, Article 423 of the Companies Act, the Company and the two External Audit & Supervisory Board Members have concluded an agreement limiting liability for damages arising from the execution of their duties in good faith and without gross negligence. The maximum liability under the agreement will be either 5 million yen or a minimum liability amount stipulated by laws and regulations, whichever is greater.

External Director Mr. Junichi Hikita concurrently serves as Representative Director at another company (Hikita Consulting Co., Ltd.). External Director Mr. Masanori Yoshikai concurrently serves as an officer or in a related role at another corporation (Advisor of Sumitomo Electric Industries, Ltd., Chief Director of Institute for Future Engineering, and Chief Director of Study Group on Japan's Goals in the 21st Century (Specified Non-Profit Organization)). External Director Mr. Yasuyuki Abe concurrently serves as an officer or in a related role at another corporation (Advisor of Sumitomo Corporation and Advisor of Orange and Partners Co., Ltd.). External Audit & Supervisory Board Member Mr. Shojiro Asai concurrently serves as an officer or in a related role at another corporation (Advisor of Rigaku Corporation and ACCEL Research Area Advisor of The Japan Science and Technology Agency). External Audit & Supervisory Board Member Mr. Nagaaki Ohyama concurrently serves as a professor at another corporation (Professor at National University Corporation Tokyo Institute of Technology). However, the Company has no significant business relationships with any of these corporations.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company's basic corporate governance policy "separates management from the execution of operations," "recruits External Directors and Audit Supervisory Board Members," and "improves the function of acting as a check by establishing the Internal Audit Division." The Company has concluded that in order to effectively implement the policy, the most effective corporate governance system is to adopt the organizational structure of a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board and to introduce an Executive Officer System. This would enable institutions within the Company to collaborate with each other. Consequently, the Company has adopted the current corporate governance system.

[2] Status of the Internal System for Timely Disclosure of the Company’s Corporate Information

The Company ensures that every employee fully understands its basic policy and procedures for timely disclosure of information, and at the same time, it discloses important information about the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates in a fair, timely, and proper manner, so that shareholders, investors, and all stakeholders are able to make appropriate evaluations and judgments.

A summary of the Company's Regulations for Timely Disclosure concerning information disclosure procedures is as described below.

1. Method of timely disclosure

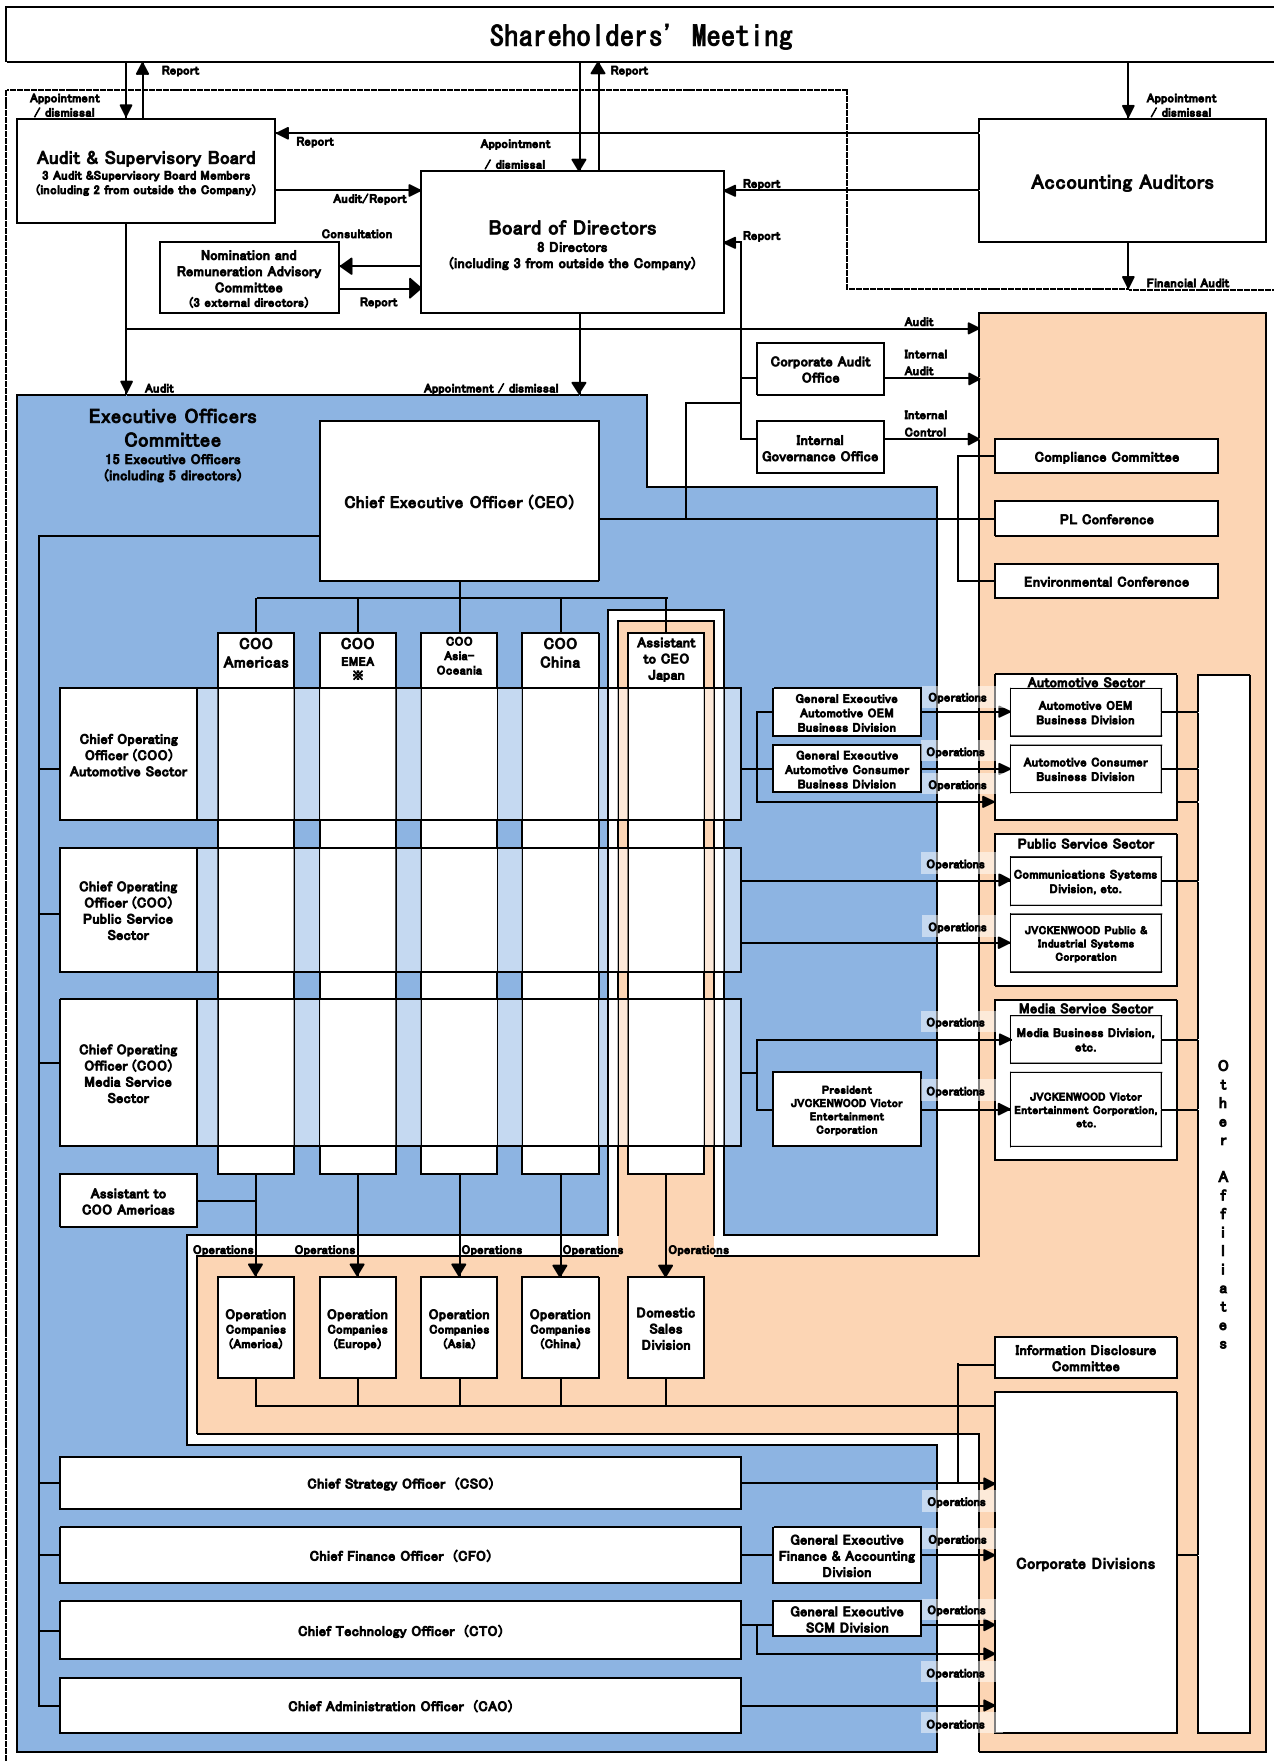

As a general rule, the Company will make timely disclosure via Timely Disclosure network (TDnet) run by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and then promptly notify the press and follow other disclosure procedures in the methods stipulated by laws and regulations. The disclosed information will be posted on the Company's website, immediately following the disclosure.

2. Divisions responsible for timely disclosure

- There is no particular division solely responsible for timely disclosure; it is regarded as a Company-wide task and every business unit bears the responsibility for it.
- In each Division, the Second-level General Manager is appointed as a "manager responsible for timely disclosure," while the Top-level General Manager is deemed a "manager chiefly responsible for timely disclosure."
- The "manager chiefly responsible for timely disclosure" and "manager responsible for timely disclosure" are to take responsibility to formulate, maintain, and supervise the timely disclosure framework within his/her Division to ensure that no important information fails to be disclosed. Inquiries concerning timely disclosure must be referred to the Information Disclosure Committee. One issue pertaining to this matter is whether the information is important enough to be disclosed on a timely basis.
- The Information Disclosure Committee is responsible for supervising the entire Company's timely disclosures. No other division but the Committee acts as the liaison for making timely disclosures.

3. Information Disclosure Committee

- The Information Disclosure Committee is responsible for maintaining and supervising the Company-wide timely disclosure framework. The Committee is notified of information to be disclosed by the manager chiefly responsible for timely disclosure; subsequently, the Committee will submit a report on the timely disclosure to the Executive Officers Committee and the Board of Directors.
- Any disclosed information concerning the Company is to be consolidated and managed by the Information Disclosure Committee, which acts as the contact point of external disclosure.
- The Information Disclosure Committee collaborates with Company lawyers or Accounting Auditors regarding timely disclosure whenever necessary.
- The Information Disclosure Committee consists of the following members.
Chairman: Chief Strategy Officer (CSO)
Members: General Executive of Corporate Communication Division, General Executive of Corporate Strategy Division, General Manager of Finance & Accounting Division, and General Executive of Corporate Management Division
Secretariat Head: General Manager of the Internal Governance Office
