September 30, 2022

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement And Activity Report for 2022

Introduction

In November 2016, we, JVCKENWOOD Corporation published our initial Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement incorporating basic policies and practices.
We continue to be committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking, and to respecting the human rights of workers.

Organisation's structure

We are a global manufacturer, distributor and solution provider in the electronics sector, primarily focusing on visual, audio and communication technologies and products.
We are the Japan based parent company of the JVCKENWOOD Group (Group), which includes our U.K. subsidiary JVCKENWOOD U.K. Ltd. (JKUK). The Group has over 16,500 employees worldwide and operates in all corners of the globe.
The Group achieved global revenue of 282,088 million Japanese yen in the fiscal year ending March 2022.

Our business

The JVCKENWOOD Group aims to provide products, services, and solutions that realize its corporate vision of "Creating excitement and peace of mind for the people of the world" in the three business sectors: Mobility & Telematics Service Sector, Public Service Sector and Media Service Sector.

Our products are manufactured by eighteen Group production companies etc. located in Japan, Southeast Asia, China etc. in nine countries, and are distributed around the world through fifteen overseas Group Sales & Marketing companies. (As of July 1, 2022)

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.
Our Anti-slavery Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place anywhere in our supply chains and business.

In Jan 2021, we have established the "JVCKENWOOD Group Human Rights Policy" to clearly express our commitment to respect human rights.

See link to our home page:
https://www.jvckenwood.com/content/dam/pdf/220215_jvckenwood_human_rights_policy_en.pdf

Further, concerning our commitment to respecting the human rights of workers, pursuant to our Group's Compliance Code of Conduct, "we strive to understand and comply with labour-related laws, standards, regulations, etc."

Due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we are committed to maintaining due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking.

JVCKENWOOD Corporation
3-12, Moriya-cho, Kanagawa-ku, Yokohama-shi, Kanagawa, 221-0022, Japan
Tel +81-45-450-1651

JVCKENWOOD

We are committed to improving our systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

Adherence to our ethical standards

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking.
To ensure this, all those in our supply chain and contractors are expected to comply with our ethical standards.
We are committed to having in place a supply chain compliance programme.
We have a dedicated compliance section, which maintains a hotline accessible to the Group. The compliance section works with representatives of Legal, Human Resources, Procurement, Group Management and other departments as necessary.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we are committed to providing training to our staff.
We conduct periodic seminars on the Compliance Code of Conduct for Group employees.

Activity Report for Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2022

- We monitored our supply chains by conducting evaluations of our suppliers to ensure that they continue to meet our commercial and ethical requirements, including compliance with human rights provisions prohibiting slavery and human trafficking. This annual supplier evaluation process has been implemented since 2009.
- We have conducted human rights risk surveillance and e-learning training on human rights for Group employees.

Further steps

- Following a review of the effectiveness of the steps we have taken this year to ensure that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains and business, we intend to take further appropriate steps to combat slavery and human trafficking.
- During the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023 we are planning the following actions.
  - To send revised self-assessment questionnaire sheet(SAQ) to all suppliers, and to consider improvement measures for issues identified in the response.
  - To continue human rights risk surveillance and e-learning training on human rights for Group employees.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the U.K. Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our Group's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending March 2022.
It also constitutes JKUK's statement for the same purpose, however subject to the qualification that instead of having a dedicated compliance section, JKUK instead has a person assigned to manage compliance, who liaises with other concerned persons as appropriate.

JVCKENWOOD Corporation

S. Eguchi

Shoichiro Eguchi
Representative Director of the Board
President, Chief Executive Officer (CEO)